APPLICANTS WITH DISABILITIES

Confederation College acknowledges the particular needs of persons with disabilities and recognizes their right to postsecondary education. The College makes every effort to provide an accessible environment within the limits of its present structure and available resources. Early self-identification of special needs is important to ensure the best quality of service. When making application to the College, applicants should identify their disability to the Manager, Admissions & Registration.

Applicants with disabilities e.g. Learning Disabilities, Physical Handicaps, etc. are urged to contact our Special Needs Counsellor when considering application to the College to determine service eligibility for educational supports. Please note that it is in the applicant's best interest to contact the College early and identify any special needs. For more information contact the Learning Centre at (807) 475-6618.
